Who are we?

Mohill Family Resource Centre CLG is based at the Canon Donohoe Hall, Main Street Mohill, Co. Leitrim

"The main object for which the Company is established is: To establish, promote and operate a community-based family support centre in the Mohill area in the County of Leitrim, which will serve the people in the Mohill area and will also serve the people in the South Leitrim areas of Ballinamore and Carrigallen.

- a) To adopt a community development approach to empower children and families to break out of the cycles of disadvantage they are faced with, and to address the needs of children in an integrated way which also considers the needs of parents, families and communities.
- b) To facilitate, encourage and support parents and other adults to identify and meet their own needs; to join groups in their own communities; to take part in recreational and cultural activities; and to undertake education and training, and the like.
- c) To encourage parents and other adults in the catchment areas to become actively involved in the management of the project and in the delivery of its services.
- d) To provide opportunities for men and women experiencing long term unemployment to return to education, training and work."
